

Customer Service Agreement and Acknowledgment

This Service Agreement ("Agreement") is made between Garage Door Guys, LLC dba Goldfinch ("Contractor") and the undersigned customer ("Customer") for the performance of services as described either verbally on _____ or in writing on the provided quote _____.

By signing below, Customer acknowledges and agrees to the following:

1. Understanding of Work: Customer has discussed the details of the service requested with the Contractor's representative and understands the scope of the work to be performed. Any additional costs not included in the quote or previously discussed will be communicated to and approved by the Customer before being incurred.
2. Consent to Service: Customer consents to the work described and authorizes the Contractor to proceed with the services as agreed.
3. Agreement to Pay: Customer agrees to pay the total cost for services rendered, including any applicable taxes or fees, as specified in the quote or as otherwise agreed. Payment is due upon completion of the work.
4. Binding Agreement: This Agreement is binding on the parties involved and their legal successors or assigns.
5. Capacity: Customer certifies that they are legally capable of entering into this Agreement, are 18 years of age or older, have the mental capacity to understand the terms, and are not under duress or legal restrictions that would prevent them from contracting.
